

Help bring our diving history to the surface ...

Are you interested in:

- Early scuba diving
- Helmet (hard hat) diving
- Wartime frogmen
- Collecting diving equipment, books and memorabilia
- Early rebreathers
- Unusual diving gear
- Meeting others with an interest in diving history

Then the Historical Diving Society – South East Asia & Pacific is for you

Join the Society for just AUD$45.00 per year and receive:

- At least 4 issues of our quarterly magazine 'Classic Diver'.
- Regular updates on Society functions, meetings and film nights.
- Networking with like-minded people to buy, sell and swap equipment and books
- Help with diving history displays
- Access to the Society's resources for research
- Networking with the Historical Diving Societies around the world.

The HDS SEAP is a membership-based, not for profit, incorporated organisation, formed in 1997. Administration of the Society is carried out by a small Committee elected by the members on an annual basis. There are no paid positions at any level within the Society. Due to the tyranny of distance over the huge area in which the HDS SEAP operates, Committee meetings are held by email. Committee Minutes and financials are reported in our magazine.

Based on a financial year calendar, membership renewal is open to all who may be interested in and want to learn more about, the rich diving heritage within our Pacific region. Annual membership fees are AUD$45.00 per year, which entitles financial members to four issues of our quarterly magazine CLASSIC DIVER.
